

Doniger Law Firm

making a difference in your world...

The Doniger Law Firm is a boutique business and civil litigation firm based in West Los Angeles. Our practice focuses on the fashion, entertainment, and marketing industries, but our broad contract drafting, litigation and appellate experience gives us competency in many arenas. We have served as insurance defense counsel, and also serve as general counsel for a select number of clients.

We are passionate about making a positive difference on a daily basis. From protecting established companies against unscrupulous business practices to helping start-ups organize and grow, we see ourselves as not only serving the interests of our clients, but of the law and society as well.

Please contact us to discuss your legal concerns.

CREATE

Focus on your business while we create the structure for its success, from choosing a legal entity to ensuring that its operations are lawful.

DEVELOP

As your company grows it will need contracts, advice on traditional and emerging issues, and help in expanding. Let us help you navigate these waters.

PROTECT

You design and we protect. We can properly register your marks and designs and prosecute any infringement.

COLLECT

Get paid for your work. We handle straight collection matters, chargeback issues, and can even assist with claims against debtors in bankruptcy.

LITIGATION

Have experienced trial counsel on your side when you can't avoid court. We represent plaintiffs and defendants in a wide range of business disputes.
